Today's Question Is:

How's the Water?

Keep Walking the Plank, House Members!

It's like a bad pirate movie.

Blue Dogs and moderates sticking their necks out to support Nancy Pelosi's agenda of big government, higher taxes, and more regulation.

They cast liberal votes that could risk their careers, even as polls show Americans don't want big government health care, and will punish politicians who try to ram it down their throats.

The warning signs have been there for months. But Blue Dogs and moderates continue to ignore them — and keep walking the plank.

Keep it Up, Liberals.
